NAPA INSTITUTE™ 2018 8th Annual conference

July 11—15

Please keep in your prayers the attendees of this year's conference (which will include our own Fr. John), as they explore the magisterium of Pope St. John Paul II in celebration of the 40th anniversary of his election to the papacy and examine the themes of faith, family, and love, 50 years after the publication of Humanae Vitae by Pope Blessed Paul VI.

Napa Institute events are built on the three pillars of Community, Formation, and Liturgy. At the annual summer conference, attendees are encouraged to build connections through meals with open seating, evening activities, and viewings of current Catholic movies and theatrical performances. Each day there are keynote sessions from renowned speakers that develop the theme of that day, as well as breakout sessions that examine current topics. At the heart of the conference is daily Mass, Adoration, spiritual direction, and time for prayer and reflection.

The aim is to support Catholic leaders in becoming countercultural forces in building institutions and habits that will carry the faith and the faithful, with their children and grandchildren, forward.

In this mission, all things are entrusted to Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of the New Evangelization and Patroness of the Americas.

ST. VERONICA GIULIANI

Capuchin Poor Clare nun

Feast: July 9

Capuchin mystic who had many spiritual gifts. A native of Binasco, near Milan, Italy (born in 1660) she entered the Capuchin Poor Clares at Cittidi Castello, Umbria, in 1677. She remained there for the rest of her life and served as novice mistress for thirty-four years. She was the recipient of stigmata in 1697 and visions, the accounts of which are quite detailed. She impressed her fellow nuns by remaining remarkably practical despite her numerous ecstatic experiences. Veronica was named abbess of the convent in 1716, remaining in that role until her death (1727). She was canonized by Pope Gregory XVI in 1839, and is considered one of the most extraordinary mystics of her era.

Reflections on the Wisdom from St. Francis

by Fr. Bobby

“Christ reveals Himself to us in sacred bread...and in this way the Lord is always with His faithful, as He Himself says: Behold I am with you until the end of the age.” Admonition 1

Following Jesus Christ in humility was not an easy thing to do, especially for the young man Francis; he was used to having others admire him and tell him how wonderful he was. Francis was only able to find true joy in the life of a friar minor by keeping a daily connection with Jesus through prayer and the sacraments. He wanted all his brothers to center their lives on their relationship with the Lord. “With every effort, every affection, every feeling, every desire and wish, let us love the Lord God,” he told them. Francis knew as a Christian that it was only because God first loves us that we can do any good at all. It is awareness of Jesus’ constant presence that is essential for us to be his disciples. May we truly believe that the Lord is with us always, even to the end of the world. God bless and keep you!

Fr. Robert Barbato, OFM Cap. is the Formation Director for the Capuchin Franciscans—Western America Province, and pastor of Old Mission Santa Inés in Solvang, CA.

FATHER BOBBY’S ITALIAN JOURNEYS

Please pray for the continued blessings and safe travels of Fr. Bobby, contributor to this bulletin, as he spends time travelling the sites in central Italy associated with St. Francis. Father visited Mount La Verna where the saint received the stigmata, and said Mass at Francis’ tomb in Assisi.

May the Lord grant Fr. Bobby enjoyment for the remainder of his vacation and a safe return to Old Mission Santa Inés.

WESTERN AMERICA PROVINCE

ASSISI PARDON

PORZIUNCULA PARDON is always available under the conditions the Catholic Church has stipulated.

The conditions for receiving the Porziuncula Pardon are:

To receive the Porziuncula Indulgence, one must receive sacramental absolution and receive Holy Communion at Mass. Additionally, one must visit a church where one prays at least the Creed and an Our Father for the intentions of the Pope. Additionally, one must be completely free of any attachment to sin; if this condition is not met, the indulgence is partial rather than plenary.

At the National Shrine of St. Francis of Assisi, the Pardon of Assisi may be received on October 4th, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi (in the Shrine Church); on any two days of one’s own choosing during the year (one day in the Church and one day in the Porziuncula Nuova); and as often as one makes a formal pilgrimage as part of a group to the Shrine Church or to the Porziuncula Nuova. (One may receive a plenary indulgence only once a day and it may be applied to oneself or to the soul of one of the faithfully departed.)
