ASSISI PARDON

PORZIUNCULA PARDON is always available under the conditions the Catholic Church has stipulated.

The conditions for receiving the Porziuncula Pardon are:

To receive the Porziuncula Indulgence, one must receive sacramental absolution and receive Holy Communion at Mass. Additionally, one must visit a church where one prays at least the Creed and an Our Father for the intentions of the Pope. Additionally, one must be completely free of any attachment to sin; if this condition is not met, the indulgence is partial rather than plenary.

At the National Shrine of St. Francis of Assisi, the Pardon of Assisi may be received on October 4th, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi (in the Shrine Church); on any two days of one's own choosing during the year (one day in the Church and one day in the Porziuncula Nuova); and as often as one makes a formal pilgrimage as part of a group to the Shrine Church or to the Porziuncula Nuova. (One may receive a plenary indulgence only once a day and it may be applied to oneself or to the soul of one of the faithfully departed.)

The Capuchins

Feast of Our Lady of Angels of the Portiuncula—August 2

One of the various titles of Mary is Our Lady, Queen of Angels. When St. Francis founded his order, his headquarters was located in a little church near Assisi dedicated to Our Lady of Angels, nicknamed the Little Portion (Portiuncula). Ever since then, Franciscans have invoked our Lady's help under this name. When the Irish Capuchin Friars came to America, they named their first parish, in Hermiston, Oregon, after Our Lady of Angels, and did the same with one of the first parishes in California, at Burlingame. It seemed only right, then, to name Our Lady of Angels patroness of the new province of Capuchins in Western America in 1979. In 2010, to mark the 100th anniversary of the arrival of the friars in the west, a pilgrim statue of Our Lady of Angels, Mother of Vocations, visited each of the friaries and is now located at Mission Santa Inés, in Solvang, California.

Reflections on the Wisdom from St. Francis

by Fr. Bobby

"If a person suffers persecution from others, let him love them all the more for the sake of God."

Admonition 3.

Learning to follow the humble Christ and fulfill His commandment of Love would be much less difficult if we didn't have to deal with other people! Francis tried always to love everyone, but sometimes even his own brothers in the Order tried his patience and made him wonder if it were worth it. Sometimes he wanted to live away from everyone, in a hermitage where he could focus on God alone. But then Francis would reflect on the gospel, and especially on Jesus' command, "Love your enemies, pray for your persecutors." How easy to love in the abstract, yet how hard to love the concrete brother or sister in front of me! This is why Francis lived in a brotherhood, a community of those who shared not only ideals, but also the challenges of daily living. It gave him the chance each day to learn to imitate what Jesus had told His disciples at the Last Supper, "Behold, I am in your midst as the one who serves." May the Lord give you grace and joy!

Fr. Robert Barbato, OFM Cap. is the Formation Director for the Capuchin Franciscans—Western America Province, and pastor of Old Mission Santa Inés in Solvang, CA.

CONGRATULATIONS, PRAYERS AND BEST WISHES TO THE NEW NOVICES

Brother Nick Pearce and Br. Artie Vasquez were invested in the Capuchin habit last Sunday, July 22 at San Lorenzo Friary, Santa Ynez, California after completing their postulancy. This was a period of around 10 months in which the Capuchin life is experienced: regular community prayer, service to the poor, disadvantaged and socially challenged; manual labor around the friary, fraternal time together at meals and other periods of the day, and studying the Catholic faith in greater depth and the Franciscan tradition.

Please pray for Artie and Nick as they enter the next stage of formation—Novitiate. They will spend this time of intense reflection deepening their spirituality with the goal of moving toward a definite commitment to religious life as Capuchins. They will live in Santa Ynez studying, praying and serving in some ministries; along with fellow novices from the other Capuchin provinces.

Oh, Holy Spirit, beloved of souls, we adore you. Enlighten these brothers, guide them, strengthen them, console them. Tell them what they should do; give them your orders. May they submit to all that you desire and to accept all that you permit to happen. Let them only know your will. Amen.
